Wednesday

4:00 Depart, Picked up Teri Johnson who was flying to North Carolina

5:15 Dropped the car off at FastPark& Relax

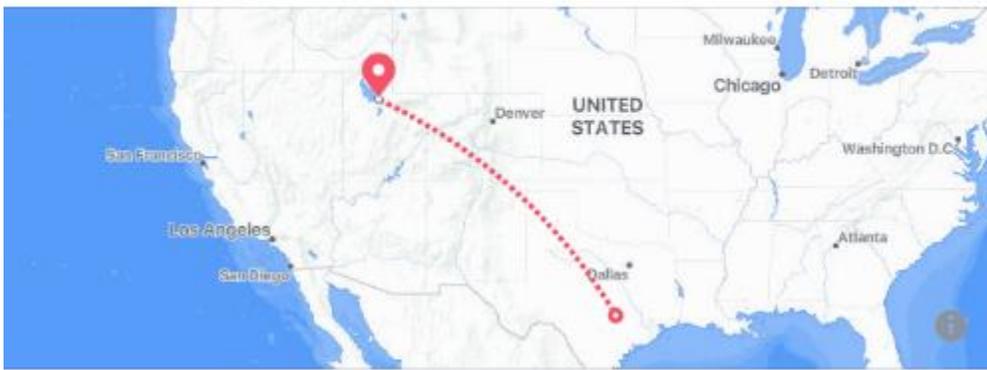

5:30 Check in TSA PreV

Found our gate, and decided to stretch our legs. Walking around the terminal, we saw Alex Corbin and Teri Johnson

8:05-9:58 Mechanical Delay

Watched Black Widow at the gate

Mechanical issues... still in Austin and we worried if we would have to take a later connection

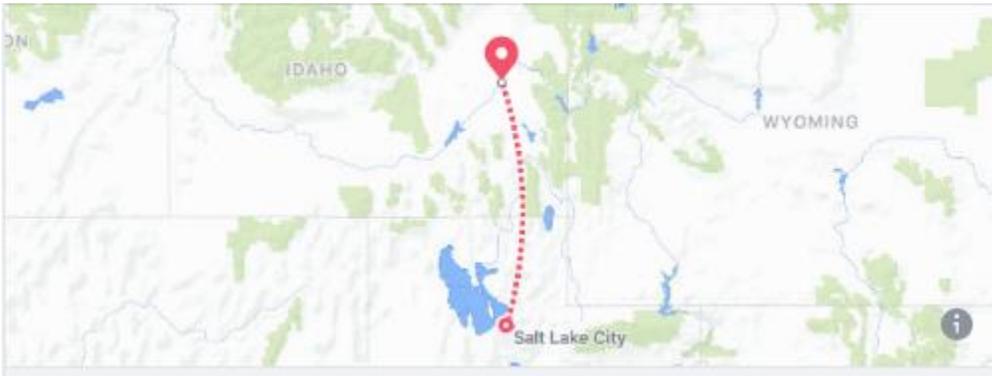

Finally got cleared to leave

10:05 Flight 1527 AUS-SLC 26 B/C

Watched Fast and Furious 9

1:00-1:30 SLC, ran from one end of Terminal B to the other, but we made our connection to Idaho Falls

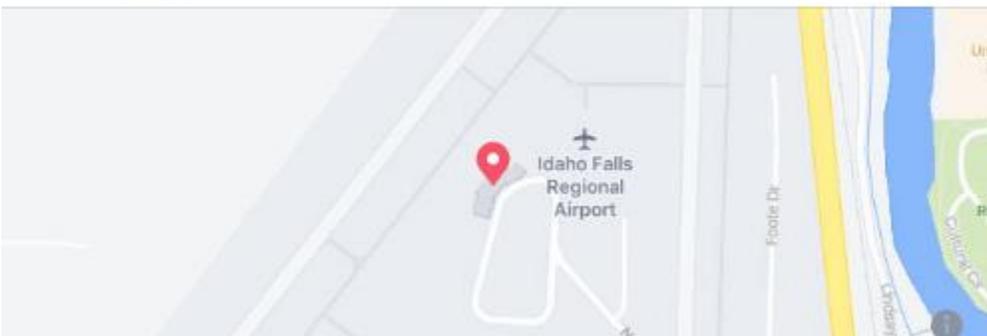

Took a bus from the gate to the Regional Jet

1:35-2:38 4099 SLC IDA 15 A/B

Hello, Idaho

Picked up our rental, a Hertz Jeep with Sirius XM 60's music

3:30 Motel West room 132

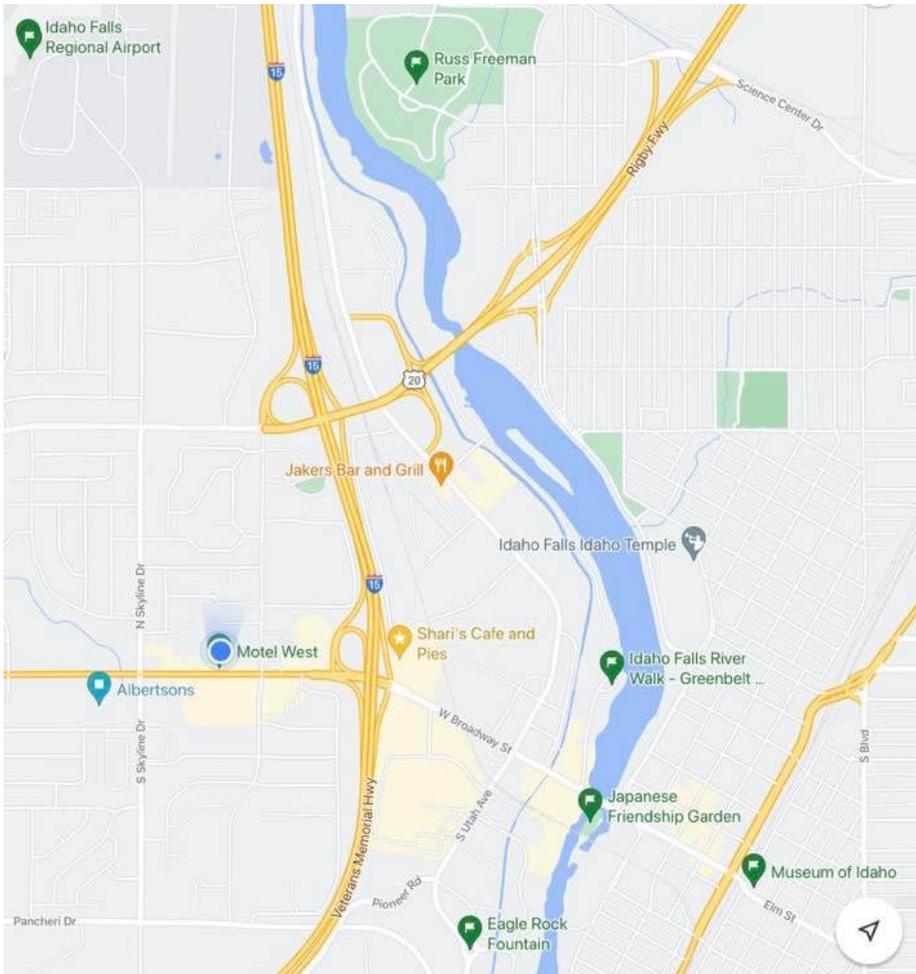

4:15 Shari's Café & Pies 5:00 Idaho Falls $27.18

Chicken Fried Steak, Turkey and Mash

Wednesdays you get a free slice of pie with purchase, so we got S'more pie, and Creamy Pecan and Caramel pie

5:00 We drove to the Greenbelt

We saw the Falls, topiary animals, art benches, LDS Temple, and the Japanese Friendship Garden

The Idaho Falls Greenbelt...covering 5 miles on both sides of the Snake River it is a joint project of the City and its residents spearheaded by the Idaho Falls Rotary Club whose annual Great Snake River Duck Race provides additional funds for expansion and improvement of the project.

The falls are actually part of a dam and hydroelectric system.

We continued walking to the Japanese Friendship Garden

We then drove to Eagle Rock fountain

Situated in the roundabout in Idaho Falls, the sculpture has two eagles and a mountain lion amid rocks and waterfalls. The official name of the sculpture is 'The Protector' created by Vic Payne installed in 2006.

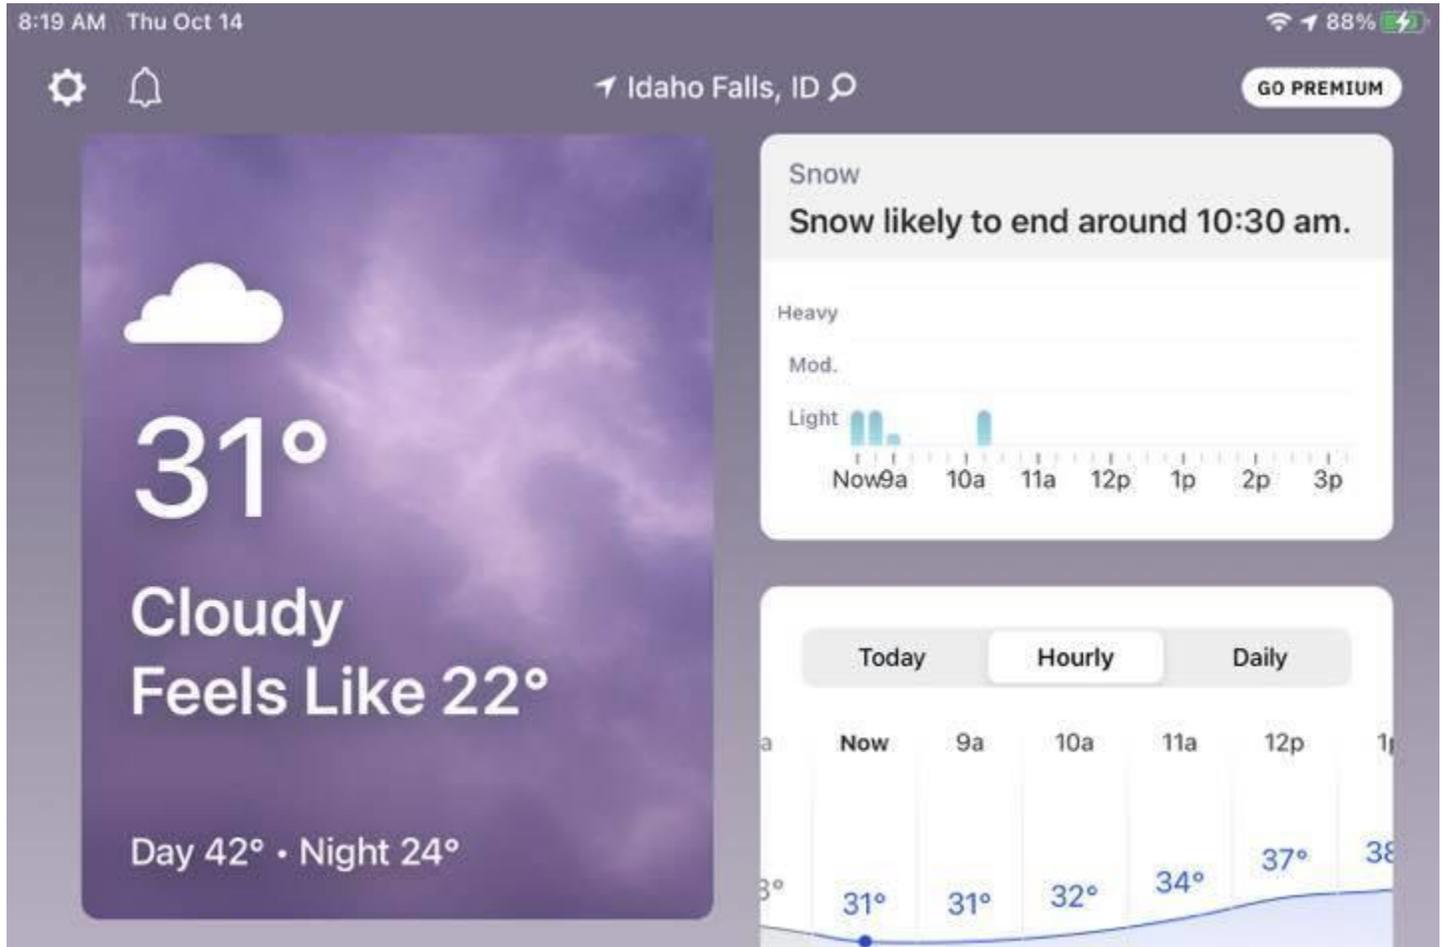

Drive to Russ Freeman Park and Vietnam Memorial

8:00 Burger King, snack, $11.30
